

THE MYSTERIOUS STRANGER

by Mark Twain (1835-1910)

The Mysterious Stranger-A Romance, is Mark Twain's final novel. He worked on it periodically from about 1890 until his death. The work is a serious social commentary addressing Twain's criticisms on what he believed to be the hypocrisy of organized religion, and his ideas of the Moral Sense and the "damned human race". Twain produced three versions of the story, some unfinished. The Harper & Brothers 1916 edition of the book is illustrated by N.C. Wyeth. (Wikipedia)
